1. Receipt is acknowledged of the amendment filed on 10/14/2004.
2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35

U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 12, 19, 20 and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lubbers et al. or Campau et al.

Both Lubbers et al and Campau et al control pedal feel and utilize a brake position sensor to control braking. Braking causes deceleration!

4. Claims 13-15 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5. Applicant's arguments filed 10/14/2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Contrary to applicant's contention, both Lubbers et al and Campau et al. do control deceleration. The position sensors on the brake pedals control braking, which is controlling deceleration of the vehicle.

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication should be directed to Matthew C Graham at telephone number 703-308-2570.
